

AMADIS DUNKEL

TROMBONIST
COMPOSER
PRODUCER

"I am greatly impressed by his music. This includes trombone performance, improvisation, arranging and composing, as well as leading his wonderful ensemble. He demonstrates a very deep and interesting level of creativity"

- Art Baron, trombonist (Duke Ellington)

"Creative" - Vincent Herring (Grammy Winner)

"An extraordinary artist with a proven track record of excellence"

- Sam Burtis, trombonist (Charles Mingus and Tito Puente)

"Dunkel has breathtaking virtuosity, a beautiful melodic sense, and a deep knowledge of the jazz tradition."

- Bruce Barth, pianist (Tony Bennett)

New York based jazz trombonist, composer and producer Amadis Dunkel embodies all the traits of a great, multi-talented, creative spirit. With dazzling virtuosity and a deep melodic sense, Dunkel thrills audiences in New York and at countless festivals and clubs around the world.

Dunkel is also a renown educator and the founder and owner of the BLUE FROG recording studio in New York City and the BLUE FROG RECORDS audiophile record label specializing in small edition vinyl LPs.

He was awarded the Jimmy Heath Award in 2013 and a DMA from Stonybrook University in 2023.

New EP PLASMA out now!

Recent Shows:

The Blue Note, NYC

Village Vanguard, NYC

Birdland, NYC

Drom, NYC

Montreux Jazz Festival, Switzerland

Shanghai Jazz Festival, China

Jarasum Jazz Festival, South-Korea

Cairo Jazz Festival, Egypt

Byblos Festival, Lebanon

Has performed with the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, with Grammy winners Vincent Herring and Luis Bonilla and Ray Anderson

www.amadisdunkel.com